

11.King Vakra Nasa

Let's Think (MCQs) (Page no : 89 - 90)

1. What kind of ruler was King Vakra Nasa?

- a. Kind b. Proud c. Wise

Answer : b

Explanation: The story says King Vakra Nasa was powerful but extremely proud.

2. Who tried to guide the king?

- a. The queen b. Minister Raman c. A farmer

Answer : b

Explanation: Minister Raman warned the king about his pride and advised him to change.

3. What disaster struck the kingdom?

- a. A war b. A drought c. A storm

Answer : b

Explanation: The kingdom suffered from a long drought that caused suffering.

4. What did the king do to regain his people's trust?

- a. Shared water and worked with them
b. Punished them
c. Left the kingdom

Answer : a

Explanation: He helped distribute water and worked alongside the people.

5. What lesson did the king learn?

- a. Pride brings sorrow
b. Fear rules people
c. Wealth is power

Answer : a

Explanation: He understood that pride leads to downfall, while humility brings peace.

True or False: (Page no : 90)

1. King Vakra Nasa was kind and humble. _____

Answer : False

2. The minister warned him about his pride. _____

Answer : True

3. The people refused to help during the drought. _____

Answer : False

4. The king later asked for forgiveness. _____

Answer : True

5. In the end, Suryanagar flourished again. _____

Answer : True

Fill in the Blanks: (Page no : 90)

1. King Vakra Nasa was a _____ and proud ruler.

Answer : cruel

2. His wise minister was named _____.

Answer : Raman

3. The kingdom suffered a great _____.

Answer : drought

4. The king asked his people for _____.

Answer : forgiveness

5. The people and the king worked _____ to rebuild the land.

Answer : together

Answer Orally: (Page no : 91)

1. Why was King Vakra Nasa proud?

Answer : He was proud because he had great power and believed no one could question him.

2. What lesson did his minister teach him?

Answer : The minister taught him that pride brings sorrow and a ruler must be humble.

3. How did the people forgive the king?

Answer : The people forgave him when he apologized and worked sincerely with them.

Answer in Writing: (Page no : 91)

1. Describe King Vakra Nasa's behavior before the drought.

Answer : King Vakra Nasa was proud and refused to listen to anyone. He believed he was always right and ignored the advice of his minister.

2. What caused the people to lose trust in him?

Answer : The people lost trust because the king did nothing to help them during the drought.

3. How did Raman help the king learn his lesson?

Answer : Raman explained that pride brings sorrow and advised the king to be humble.

4. What actions showed that the king had changed?

Answer : The king apologized, shared water, and worked with the people to rebuild the land.

5. What is the moral of the story?

Answer : Pride brings sorrow, but humility brings respect and happiness. "Explanation: A good leader must be humble and caring."

Fill in the Blanks (Parts of Speech): (Page no : 92)

1. The king was very _____. (proud/kind/lazy)

Answer : proud

2. The _____ warned the king. (minister/soldier/farmer)

Answer : minister

3. The _____ refused to give water. (people/animals/trees)

Answer : people

4. The king became _____ and helped everyone. (humble/angry/selfish)

Answer : humble

5. The _____ of Suryanagar were happy again. (people/castles/crowns)

Answer : people

Make Sentences: (Page no : 93)

1. Pride –

Answer : Pride can make a person behave foolishly.

2. Kindness –

Answer : Kindness makes the world a better place.

3. Forgive –

Answer : We should forgive others when they say sorry.

4. Drought –

Answer : The farmers suffered during the long drought.

5. Leader –

Answer : Describes a leader's quality.

Grammar Notes and Practice (Page no : 96)

1. Nouns

Examples: king, minister, farmer, drought, well

Activity: Fill with correct nouns.

1. The _____ ruled Suryanagar.

Answer : king

2. The wise _____ advised the king.

Answer : minister

3. The _____ asked for water.

Answer : farmer

4. The _____ dried up.

Answer : well

5. The _____ helped the king.

Answer : people

3. Verbs (Page no : 96)

Examples: ruled, helped, forgave, learned

Activity:

1. The king _____ his lesson.

Answer : learned

2. The people _____ the king.

Answer : Forgive

3. The minister _____ the king wisely.

Answer : advised

4. The villagers _____ together.

Answer : worked

5. The wells _____ again with water.

Answer : filled

4. Adjectives (Page no : 97)

Examples: proud, humble, wise, kind, strong

Activity: Circle the adjectives.

1. The proud king refused to help.

Answer : proud

2. The wise minister warned him.

Answer : wise

3. The humble villagers forgave him.

Answer : humble

4. The strong sun dried the land.

Answer : strong

5. The happy kingdom flourished again.

Answer : happy

6. Prepositions (Page no : 98)

Examples: in, with, for, from

Activity:

1. The king lived _____ a big palace.

Answer : in

2. The people worked _____ the king.

Answer : with

3. Water came _____ the new wells.

Answer : from

4. The king asked _____ forgiveness.

Answer : for

5. The minister spoke _____ wisdom.

Answer : with

7. Articles (Page no : 98)

Examples: a, an, the

Activity:

1. Vakra Nasa was _____ proud king. (a/the)

Answer : a

2. _____ minister's name was Raman. (The/A)

Answer : the

3. He made _____ big mistake. (a/an)

Answer : a

4. The people forgave _____ king. (the/a)

Answer : the

5. _____ drought ended soon. (The/A)

Answer : the

8. Sentence Creation (Page no : 98)

Write sentences using:

1. Pride

Answer : Pride can destroy relationships.

2. Forgive

Answer : We should forgive others to live peacefully.

3. Leader

Answer : A true leader listens to everyone.

4. Drought

Answer : The drought caused many problems in the village.

5. Kindness

Answer : Kindness brings people closer.

Let's Write (Page no : 100)

Title: "If I Were a King or Queen"

Imagine you were a ruler for a day. How would you care for your people? Write 4–5 lines.

If I were a ruler,

I would take care of my people with love.

I would make sure everyone had food and water.

I would listen to their problems and solve them quickly.

I would treat everyone equally and rule with kindness.

Explanation : Shows responsibility, kindness, and leadership.