

13. Royal Servant

Let's Think – Choose the Correct Answer (Page No : 92)

1. What was King Arvind's weakness?

- a) Laziness
- b) Anger
- c) Love for praise
- d) Fear

Answer : c

Explanation: King Arvind liked people who praised him and believed flattery easily.

2. What kind of man was Hari?

- a) Proud
- b) Simple and humble
- c) Rude
- d) Lazy

Answer : b

Explanation: Hari never flattered the king. He was honest and humble.

3. What question did the king ask his servants?

- a) Who is the richest?
- b) Who is the greatest?
- c) Who works hardest?
- d) Who is the kindest?

Answer : b

Explanation: The king wanted to know who thought he was the greatest.

4. How did Hari answer?

- a) He flattered the king
- b) He said the people made the king great
- c) He said the king was the only great one
- d) He stayed silent

Answer : b

Explanation: Hari spoke the truth that a king is great only because of his people.

5. Why did the king make Hari the Royal Servant?

- a) Because he was rich
- b) Because he spoke the truth
- c) Because he sang songs
- d) Because he was powerful

Answer : b

Explanation: Hari's honest reply impressed the king, and he trusted him.

True or False (Page No : 93)

1. King Arvind was unkind and unfair. _____

Answer : False

2. Hari always told the truth. _____

Answer : True

3. The king became angry forever. _____

Answer : False

4. The people's hard work helped the king. _____

Answer : True

5. Hari became the most trusted servant. _____

Answer : True

Answer the Following Questions Orally (Page No : 93)

1. Who was King Arvind?

Answer : He was the ruler who loved praise and flattery.

2. What kind of servant was Hari?

Answer : He was simple, humble, and truthful.

3. What did the king ask his servants one day?

Answer : He asked who was the greatest.

4. What made the king realize Hari's wisdom?

Answer : Hari's truthful answer made him understand that people made him great.

5. What is the moral of the story?

Answer : Honesty and humility are more valuable than flattery.

Answer the Following Questions in Writing (Page No : 94)

1. Describe the character of Hari in two sentences.

Answer : Hari was a humble and honest man who never flattered the king. He always spoke the truth even when others tried to please the king falsely.

2. Why did the king trust Hari more than others?

Answer : The king trusted Hari because he spoke honestly instead of trying to flatter. He realized Hari's words were wise and sincere.

3. What lesson did the king learn?

Answer : The king learned that true greatness comes from serving and caring for his people, not from false praise.

4. How did Hari serve the king differently from others?

Answer : Hari served the king with honesty and loyalty, not with flattery. He guided the king with truthful advice.

5. What message does this story give to us?

Answer : The story teaches that honesty, humility, and sincerity earn respect and trust.

Make Sentences Using the Following Words
(Page No : 95)

1. Noble

Answer : The noble king cared for everyone in his kingdom.

2. Flatter

Answer : Some servants tried to flatter the king to gain rewards.

3. Humble

Answer : Hari was humble and never boasted about himself.

4. Loyal

Answer : A loyal servant always supports the king with truth.

5. Wisdom

Answer : Hari's wisdom helped the king understand the truth.

Fill in the Blanks (Subject-Verb Agreement)
(Page No : 96 - 97)

1. Hari always _____ (speak/speaks) the truth.

Answer : speaks

2. The king _____ (was/were) pleased with his honesty.

Answer : was

3. The people _____ (work/works) hard for the kingdom.

Answer : work

4. Truth always _____ (win/wins) in the end.

Answer : wins

5. The king and Hari _____ (become/becomes) good friends.

Answer : become